

CATA, The Farmworkers' Support Committee, seeks a part-time Community Organizer in Chester County, Pennsylvania:

CATA – The Farmworkers' Support Committee is seeking a part-time Community Organizer at 20 hours/week. The Community Organizer will primarily focus on base-building with immigrant workers throughout Chester County, PA. The ideal candidate will speak excellent Spanish and English and have experience in organizing for social change.

This position will work with CATA's team of organizers and CATA members to advance CATA's mission of working for better working and living conditions for all immigrants. CATA is a migrant farmworker organization that is governed by and comprised of farmworkers who are actively engaged in the struggle for better working and living conditions. The Mission of CATA is to empower farmworkers and immigrant workers to fight for their rights so they can live a full life. We work together to achieve safe working and living conditions, fair wages, and to be treated with respect and dignity.

Responsibilities:

The Community Organizer will be primarily responsible for increasing CATA's outreach to farmworkers and other immigrant workers throughout Chester County, PA. The goal of this position is to build and maintain CATA's network of members and leaders in Chester County and actively coordinate with and facilitate local engagement with the Driving PA Forward Campaign fighting for access to drivers' licenses for all. Specific responsibilities will include:

- ❖ Participate in the development and implementation of a plan for community outreach and education around the PA Drivers' License Campaign.
- ❖ Coordinate with other CATA organizers for regional and local leadership meetings, member activities, leadership training, etc.
- ❖ Provide assistance to individual workers and groups of workers seeking to address workplace issues – This involves intake, case management, legal coordination, etc.
- ❖ Facilitate worker meetings
- ❖ Educate yourself (with assistance from other CATA organizers) around issues pertinent to our community – labor laws, immigration etc.
- ❖ Attend monthly staff meetings and local community meetings.
- ❖ Maintain communication and develop relationships with local community leaders
- ❖ etc.

Qualifications:

- ❖ Demonstrated commitment to social justice and human rights values
- ❖ Experience with CATA or other social justice organizations is not required, but a plus
- ❖ Competency of speech and writing in both English and Spanish
- ❖ Demonstrated ability to work independently, while also being able to work as part of a team.
- ❖ Possess a valid driver's license and a vehicle.
- ❖ Ability to work evenings and occasionally weekends

Location: Kennett Square, PA

Details: Part-time hourly position, $15-$18/hour depending on experience, nights and weekends required. Paid time off – Vacation, personal, and sick time provided, along with some holidays.

CATA is a human rights organization and is dedicated to policies to promote the hiring of people of color and women.
